JIMMIE BRITT GIVES GO TO GANS

Deliberately Fouls Him in Fifth Round.

to Gans on a foul. The same thing had happened in the fourth round. Gans had dropped to his knees to escape a blow that did not land, Britt struck at him, but Graney would not allow the foul. In the next round however, Graney promptly recognized the foul fighting.

It looked almost from the start as if it were Britt's fight. He actually out-boxed Gans and landed blow after blow. In the fourth round it was apparent that Gans was scared and, barring a foul, the fight was Britt's to a certainty. While no excuse can be made for Britt losing his head, it certainly seemed that Gans invited a foul.

Decision Shocked Native Sons.

The decision was a great shock to the biggest crowd that ever filled the paon, but fair-minded men agreed that Graney's judgment was just. Britt showed marvelous strength and quickness. He went at Gans like a bull terlanding body blows alternating with swings on the jaw. During the first three rounds Gans appeared cool viciously than ever. There is no doubt in the minds of the majority of those present that in another contest at the same weights Britt would defeat Gans easily. Referee Graney said after the Foul a Palpable One.

"I really should have given Gans the decision in the fourth round when Britt fouled him, but as Gans was not hurt I overlooked it, though Britt himself admitted that I could have called a foul at that time. The second offense in the fifth round was so palpable, however, that I was forced to give Gans the decision."

Britt was frantic with rage when he realized that he had lost the fight and realized that the

The fifth round lasted but 38 seconds when the foul was declared.

The Fight by Rounds.

Round 1-Britt went at once into his favorite crouch and they sparred for some time. Britt shot his left twice in some time. Britt shot his left twice in quick succession to Gans' body, but they were not forcible. After some more sparring Britt hooked his left to the body again and followed it with right to the head. Both then missed rights and lefts for the head. Then like a flash Britt shot his left to the body and missed a right for the head, Gans apparently sizing up Britt's reach. Gans missed a straight right for the head. Britt was short with left for the body and missed a left for the head as the bell rang.

The work in this round was light, Britt having a slight advantage. Gans permitted Britt to do most of the work. Britt's blows were of a light nature and did no harm.

Honors Even in Second.

Round 2—Britt missed left and right for the body and they went to a clinch. Britt suddenly lunged his left to the head and then brought it to the body. Gans continued to force Britt about the ring and they came to a clinch without result. Britt missed a left hook for the body and then sent a straight left to Gans' nose, Gans retallating with left to the body. Britt drove, Gans back with a left swing to the body. Britt bored in, scoring with left and right to the wind. In the mix both exchanged rights and lefts to the face. Britt missed a vicious left for the body. They came together. Britt missing left and right for the body. A rally in the center of the ring followed, Britt landing right and left on the face as the bel Irang, but not before he had received a straight left to the head.

Britt did most of the leading in this round. The honors were about even, however.

Gans Forced to Clinch.

Round 3-They mixed it fiercely at close quarters, both doing some very clever blocking. Gans got in a good right to the body, but Britt retallated with a straight left hard to the stomach. They mixed it again, Britt putting left and right to the body. An ineffectual mix followed. Britt caught Gans with a terrific right to the jaw, dazzling th ecolored man. He followed the advantage with a right and left swing to the head, forcing Gahs to a clinch. Britt rushed in, fighting wildly. He bombarded Gans face and body with right and left swings and put some punishing rights over the heart. Britt, at close quarters, greatly distressed Gans with a fearful right over the body. Gans clung desperately to Britt to avoid punishment and the gong found them in this position. It was all Britt's round.

Britt Commits First Foul.

Britt Commits First Foul. Round 4—Britt waded in fiercely, rushing Gans to the ropes with a heavy left over the heart. He then missed right and left swings for the body. Britt kept himbelf well covered and was a puzzle to Gans. Britt sent Gans back with a succession of rights and lefts to the face and Gans suddenly shot his left hard to Britt's jaw, but in return Britt put in body blows that sent Gans to his knees. After a mix-up Britt sent Gans to the floor with a left to the jaw. Gans rose, but was again floored with right and left to the face. There was fearful confusion and the bell was not heard. In this round Britt hit Gans accidentally while Gans was down, but a claim of foul was disallowed. Gans was in distress and the gong saved him.

Foul Gives Gans the Fight.

Round 5-They mixed fiercely. Britt went after Gans like a whirly wind. Britt sent Gans to the floor with a succession of rights and lefts to the jaw. As Gans with a desperate right to the jaw. Beddle Graney quickly disqualified Britt and awarded the decision to Gans.

The excitement was terrific. Britt rushed at Grapey like a madmen and fought him to the ropes. A squad of police immediately jumped into the ring and it looked as if there would be a general fight. The house gave vent to its disapproval by tremendous hooting, and wildly cheered Britt as he went to the center of the ring.

"Young Corbett" jumped into the ring and the visitors won handly by a score of 22 to 0. Twenty-minute halves were blayed, Utah scoring 12 to 0 in the first half and II to 0 in the second half. with swings on the jaw. During the first three rounds Gans appeared cool and confident and fairly strong. He appeared to be feeling Britt out, but at the end of the third and early in the fourth, when Britt commenced to fight more viciously than ever, Gans weakened perceptibly.

Gans landed a few times on Britt but the little white boy paid no attention to the colored man's light taps, and every time he was hit bored in more viciously than ever. There is no doubt the same team.

Tobin and Young fought for high individual honors last night and the former Elk bowler came out best by a bare three points, giving him high average, with a mark of 193 2-3, which is going some at that. Young's score of 225 in the last game was the high score for a single game. Five scores of better than 260 were made, and all the scores, as a rule, were better than any evening's work since the season began. The score:

SENIORS WIN GAME IN CLASS SERIES

Seniors, 12; juniors, 0.

This was the score in yesterday's game on Cummings field. The game was the second of the class series. It was a remarkable one in speed and lack of fumbles. Smith and Travers at tackles were a mass of strength and often caught the junior fullback, showed himself a strong man, especially on defensive. The only long run was made by Thomas, aided by Parke, who got the ball on a fumble and made a run of fifty yards. Alexander was a good ground gainer.

The Wyoming boys made good gains, however, whenever they had the ball, but were unable to stoo the onslaughts of the Utahns when the latter had the ball. The visitors played a brilliant game, their play being replete with numerous take blays, nutdles and sensational end runs. The Laramie boys exceeded the expectations of their admirers, for it was thought the Utahns would overwhelm them.

Thompson of Wyoming was badly injured in the second half and was carried from the field. The Utah players were lucky and escaped without a scratch.

A proposition is on before the city council to construct sewers in the southwestern portion of the city. A resolution was introduced at the council meeting last night by President Carr providing that the city engineer make estimates of the cost of constructing a system of sewers in that neighborhood, and report back to the city council. The resolution was passed.

The council also allowed a large number of estimates made by the city engineer for paving, curbing and guttering and sewer construction done by P. J. Moran, J. P. O'Neill and L. C. Keisey. The total of the estimates amounted to $25,009.

When you receive the whiskey, try it and if you don't find it all right and as good as you ever used or can buy from anybody else at any price, then send it back at our expense and your $4.00 will be returned to you by next mail. How could an offer be fairer? We take all the risk and stand all the expense, if the goods do not please you. Won't you let us send you a trial order? We ship in a plain sealed case, no marks to show what's inside. If you don't want 4 quarts yourself, join with a friend. If you don't want 4 quarts yourself, join with a friend.

A Hayner quart is an honest quart of 32 ounces, 4 to the gallon. All other high-grade whiskies are put up in bottles that take 5 to make a gallon. We give one-fourth more in every bottle, really reducing our price just that much.
